Account Executive

Interrupt is the leading strategic creative agency for the building material and home improvement industries. We work with an impressive list of Fortune 500 clients who are leaders in their category. What we do is unique. We deliver Strategic Creative Results for our clients to ensure they outperform their market and optimize their business results. We measure Interrupt's success through the success of our clients. This position will align with and embody our company goals of enabling profitable success for our clients and Interrupt, building a team of extraordinary people, creating a dynamic office culture and giving back to our community. This position is an important one to Interrupt's and our clients' success.

Description:

The Account Executive (AE) is an integral contributor to the business success of our clients, and therefore for Interrupt's success. The AE excels in project management, is an advocate for strategic, creative work and is key to maintaining the relationship between the agency and the client - ensuring growth and profitability for their clients and Interrupt. AEs, along with the Strategic Account Managers (SAMs), are the liaisons between the client and the Interrupt team, and shepherd projects through to completion, ensuring the client's goals are exceeded on every project.

We're looking for an experienced agency AE, or marketing communications professional on the client side, who will become an invaluable partner to our clients by thoroughly understanding the building materials industry and our clients' business.

Required Experience & Education:

- Advertising, marketing communications (agency or client side): 3 years
- Bachelor's
